

FUTURE GENERATIONS, EVOLVING SERVICES
Manitoba Libraries Conference
Delta Hotel, Winnipeg
7 - 9 May 2009

About the Conference

Highlights:

This year's theme, Future Generations: Evolving Services will explore human resource issues as well as the provision of services for the next generation of information and cultural institution clients. Full details are found at <http://www.manitobalibrariesconference.ca>.

Keynote speakers:

The opening keynote speaker is Ian Brown, host of the CBC Radio show Talking Books for over a decade, and current roving feature writer for the Globe & Mail. He is the author of Freewheeling and Man Overboard. He is currently finishing The Boy in the Moon, a book about his son Walker, who was born with a rare genetic syndrome.

Kelly Moore, Executive Director of the Canadian Library Association will give the closing keynote address, speaking on "Future Generations: What Will Impact Our Profession?"
